SLEET CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE

Greatest Loss Sustained at E. R. Casady's Store Where Water Leaks in Through Roof.

ALSO REACHES FIRST FLOOR

Walking is Jeopardized by Falling Limbs Weighed Down by Coating of Ice.

The rain and sleet of last night coming as it did on top of four inches of snow caused a great amount of damage because of leaky roofs. Shade trees in this city and county were greatly damaged. The weight of the snow caused many limbs to break off.

Many business houses were damaged by water. Down spouts failed to carry the water and when it banked up on the roofs numerous leaks resulted. The greatest damage resulted at the E. R. Casady store. It was estimated this morning that the damage at the Casady store would reach $2,500.

A bad leak in the roof let the water down into the store in torrents. Fifty fine rugs were damaged by the water on the second floor and then it seeped through the first floor. On the first floor a heavy loss was sustained when the water came in contact with a large amount of calico, cotton goods, underwear and blankets. In the dressmaking department two machines were badly damaged. One of the machines was practically new.

The interior of the store resembled the after effects of a fire because there was so much water. The loss in the rug and carpet department was especially heavy. It was stated that because of the steady advancing price of carpets, rugs and linoleums the store had purchased and had on hands larger stock than was ordinarily the case and because of this the loss was much greater. Some fine Persian rugs were included in the list that was damaged by the water.

It is believed that the water dripped through from the roof all night, as the volume of water was exceedingly great. The discovery was made this morning by Knowles Casady when he opened the store for the day's business. Mr. Casady intends to have his loss appraised in order to get the exact amount of damage.

The city park resembled a huge brush pile. Many limbs were broken off, including some of the larger ones. The weight of the snow also broke off limbs from trees all over the city. Walking at an early hour this morning was also very bad. The gutters were filled and backed up with water and slush and there was hardly a good crossing in the entire city. Walking on the sidewalks was dangerous because of the falling limbs weighed down by ice.

The ice and snow played havoc with the wire communications. There were reports from all over the county of wires down and broken wire service. Probably the worst damage in the county was done to the telephone line between here and New Salem. About two miles from Rushville, two and one-half miles of wire were down and in a tangled mass across the road.

This condition made it impossible for Woodford Casady, carrier on rural route No. 1, to cover his route today. When he reached the tangled mass of wire over the road, he had to return to the postoffice the patrons of rural route one had to do without their mail today.

Reports came from all over the county told of damaged telephone

HAS OVER 500 SIGNATURES

"Uncle Jeff" Davis Puts in Valiant Licks For Watson.

"Uncle" Jeff Davis of near Clarksburg, an ardent admirer and supporter of James E. Watson has been circulating the petition of the local man in Decatur county to have his name placed on the primary ballot as a candidate for United States senator. How well "Uncle" Jeff has succeeded can be seen by the fact that he has over 500 signers to the petition. The names are not confined to the Clarksburg neighborhood but takes in all parts of the county and "Uncle" Jeff declares that he did not work very hard.

DON'T PUT TOO MUCH FAITH IN THE CLOCK

Hands on East Dial Had to Be Discontinued Because They Were Frozen by Snow and Sleet.

MAY AFFECT OTHER DIALS

Joe Dickman, custodian of the court house, said that too much dependence must not be placed in the court house clock because the east dial was out of commission last night by the sleet and snow. A strong east wind drove the sleet and snow into the place which supports the hands and they froze up, stopping the clock. Mr. Dickman called Jess Poe and the hands on the east face were disconnected and the clock started. The hands on the east dial will not be in running order until they are thoroughly thawed out.

Whether that would affect the other hands was not certain, in the opinion of Mr. Poe. He said he felt certain that the hands would show the correct time the first half hour, or as they go down, but the last half of the hour was problematical, he said. With the hands on the east dial disconnected, there was chance of the others showing the wrong time.

NEW COMPANY GETS PRINTING CONTRACT

Muncie Firm is Awarded Job For 1916 Because Prices Are Lower Than Levy Brothers.

SOME EXAMPLES ARE GIVEN

As was expected the contract for the county printing was awarded to the A. E. Boyce and Company of Muncie by the county commissioners late Tuesday afternoon. The bid of this firm was generally lower than Levy Brothers, the only other bidder. The county will save about $400 on tax receipts alone. The bid of Levy Brothers for tax receipts was $1 for eighty and the Boyce company submitted a bid of sixty cents for eighty receipts.

The bid of the Boyce company was from two to four cents cheaper per quire over that of the other bidder. The Boyce company has done the county printing for Henry county for the past fourteen years and has held the contract in Fayette county for the past seven years.

The commissioners adjourned yesterday to meet again Friday when the year's business will be closed and the table cleared for the new board, which meets Monday.

NEXT MEETING HOLDS INTEREST

First Session of New Board of Commissioners Will be Time For Filling Appointive Offices.

SEVERAL NAMES MENTIONED

Chester Peck, County Recorder-Elect, Announces Mrs. Fanny Study Will be His Deputy.

Interest in local politics centers in the meeting of the county commissioners next Monday. At that time the board will have a Republican majority for the first time in two years. The new commissioner is John T. Bowles of Center township. The Republican members of the board will be P. A. Newhouse and Mr. Bowles and the Democratic hold-over member is William Moore.

Interest in this meeting is largely because of a number of appointive offices to be filled. It has been the custom for years to make the appointments along political lines, selecting the men from the party having the majority of the membership on the board. A number of candidates have been mentioned for the various appointments.

Three well known attorneys have been spoken of for the position of county attorney. The names of John A. Tittsworth, Chauncey Duncan and George W. Young have been mentioned for this office. Friends of these candidates have been busy during the past few weeks working in their behalf. Owing to other business and the necessary reorganization of the board the appointments will not likely be made next Monday.

Several candidates have also been mentioned for the position of county road superintendent to succeed J. C. King. The two names most prominently heard are Hal Green and Peter Maffett. Mr. Green has had experience in road work, having served as supervisor of roads in Jackson township. Both are well known over the county and either would make a good road superintendent.

It is more than likely that Newton Newbold will retain his position as superintendent of the county poor farm. His time is not up until next summer and as this position is not an easy one to fill, the position may be offered to him again, it is said.

Chester Peck, who takes his office as recorder of Rush county Saturday, has announced that his deputy will be Mrs. Fanny Study. Mrs. Study served as deputy auditor under Jesse Stone and should prove an efficient deputy for Mr. Peck. Charles Brooks, retiring recorder will engage in the bonding business with A. C. Brown. Mr. Peck has been in the recorder's office for the past month becoming acquainted with the work. The term of Joe Dickman, custodian of the court house, expires May 1, but no one has been mentioned for that place.

U. R. K. OF P. MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of Uniform Rank, No. 35, Knights of Pythias this evening for practice drill to get ready for inspection and installation of officers on January 6. All members are urged to come out this evening.

KILLS THREE PERSONS.

RABBIT BONE IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Edwin Macy, Age 35 Years, Expires From Effects of Swallowing Small Piece While Laughing.

WALLS OF STOMACH PIERCED

Post Mortem Fails to Reveal Bone But Shows What Caused Death Funeral on Thursday.

Edwin Macy, age thirty-five years, is dead at his home south of Carthage from the effects of swallowing a small rabbit bone. He suffered for more than a week before death finally relieved his suffering. The bone cut a hole in his stomach and an abscess formed, causing him to have a hemorrhage Sunday and another just before his death Monday night.

Mr. Macy about two weeks ago was eating a piece of rabbit at the supper table, and something was said which caused a ripple of laughter and it was then thought that Mr. Macy swallowed a small piece of the rabbit bone. The bone is thought to have gone into the stomach and perforated that organ, causing severe pain and hemorrhages. Death came at 6:55 Monday evening following a short period of restfulness and followed by a severe hemorrhage, which hastened the end.

Mr. Macy was born in Union township, Shelby county, January 21, 1880, and was the son of William and Caroline Macy. His entire life up until nine years ago, when he moved to the farm near Carthage were spent in Shelby county.

His marriage to Miss Alice Brooks was solemnized on October 11, 1906. No children were born of the union. Deceased is survived by his parents, who made their home with him; one brother, Herman Macy, of Shelby county, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Wicker, near Morristown.

Several well known physicians were called to attend Mr. Macy and at 10:30 Tuesday morning a post mortem was held to determine the exact cause of his death.

The physicians found that the bone had severed an artery in the stomach, but were unable to locate the fatal bit as it has passed into the intestines.

The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Walnut Ridge Friends church, of which he was a member. Interment will be made in the Walnut Ridge cemetery near Carthage.

Huntington, preacher; Thursday, Jan. 6.—St. Paul M. E., the Rev. C. M. Yocum, preacher; Friday, Jan. 7.—Main Street Christian, the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt, preacher.

The Rev. John T. Aikin of Wilmerding, Pa., will fill the pulpit at the United Presbyterian church next Sunday and the Sunday following.

TICKETS FOR SHORT COURSE SENT OUT

Allotment Distributed Among Township Vice-Presidents and They Are Also on Sale Here.

SELL FOR FIFTY CENTS EACH

Tickets for the Farmers Short Course to be held here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 24, 25 and 26, were sent to the various township vice-presidents this afternoon and will be received by them in the morning. They will also be placed on sale at all of the drug stores and banks in Rushville by F. E. Wolcott, chairman of the ticket committee. The tickets will sell for fifty cents each and will admit the holder to any section of the short course or any and all night meetings.

The short course promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Rushville and active preparations are under way to make it the success that it deserves. It will be announced in ample time where the sessions and special classes and demonstrations will be held. The program has already been announced.

RUSH COUNTY TO SEND BIG CROWD

Inclement Weather Will Not Deter Republicans Going to State-Wide Love Feast.

AT INDIANAPOLIS THURSDAY

Delegations Are Expected From All Corners of State For Meeting at Murat Theater.

Inclement weather today failed to dampen the ardor in the least of the Republicans of Rush county who are going to Indianapolis Thursday for the state-wide love feast which will be held in the Murat theater in the afternoon.

Rush county will vie with other counties of the state in the size of the crowd she sends because she does not expect to be outdone by any other county especially since there is from this county a candidate for the nomination to the highest place on the state ticket.

The delegation will leave in special cars over the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's lines directly after the dispatch at 9:04 Thursday morning. The local crowd expects to make a big demonstration for James E. Watson. After arrival in Indianapolis, the crowd will go to the Severin hotel where Watson and a number of other candidates for places on the state ticket have headquarters.

The gathering at Indianapolis will be the first state-wide love feast the Republicans have held in late years. The indications are that the event will be the largest in point of attendance and interest of any ever held by any party in Indiana.

The love feast will be held at the Murat theater and will begin at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Will Hays, chairman of the state committee, will be the presiding officer. Although all the candidates for United States senator and all those aspiring to state offices will be present, they will not be called on for speeches.

Secretary Henley of the state committee has received word from several cities from which special trains are to be run to Indianapolis. All of the candidates have engaged headquarters at the Hotel Severin and some of them will have delegations with bands from home to arouse interest.

The feature of national interest at the love feast will be the attention paid to the candidacy of Charles W. Fairbanks for the nomination for president. Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, who is to be the chief speaker is one of the advocates of the nomination of Fairbanks. He is an eloquent speaker and it is the understanding that he is to devote considerable time to the subject.

Why Not the Easy Way, Mr. Store-keeper?

The storekeeper who senses and moves with the current of public thought succeeds.

Such a storekeeper is first of all a newspaper reader and especially a reader of newspaper advertising.

He knows that when an advertisement of a product appears that the public mind will think about it.

He tunes his window to the advertising.

He shows the newspaper advertised goods—he finds it the easy way to attract trade.

Amusements

The Princess will show "Neal of the Navy" for the first picture tonight. This episode is entitled "The Sun Worshippers." This is one of the most exciting episodes of the entire series. The other picture is a two reel drama entitled "The Spider." Ruth Stonehouse is featured in this one. Tomorrow night Charles Chaplin will be shown in his latest comedy "A Night at the Show." It is in two acts and it said to be one of his best efforts. On Friday night Nat Goodwin, the famous actor will be seen in "The Master Hand."

One of the most gripping dramas of the present moving picture season is "The Man of Shame," which comes to the Gem theatre tonight. It features that renowned actor, Wilton Lackaye, who is seen in a dual role, which somewhat resembles the Jekyll and Hyde of Robert Louis Stevenson.

The picture was produced under the direction of Harry C. Myers, who is one of the foremost directors in the film to-day, and he has made a picture which will certainly amuse all moving picture patrons.

He Swore at The King

London, Dec. 1 (By Mail).—A touch of wartime humor at the expense of King George leaked through from Sandringham today. It was during the King's recent visit to his country place. Unattended, one evening at dusk, the King went for a short stroll through the grounds. He was soon interrupted by a peremp-tory "Halt!"

"Who goes there?" demanded a sentry. There was no reply. The sentry repeated his challenge, sternly.

"Who goes there?" he thundered. "The King," meekly answered the monarch.

"Well, why in the hell didn't you say so," blurted the soldier. And then he tried to apologize. But the King was too prompt. Ignoring the offered apology, he quickly and smilingly commended the Tommy for his vigilance.

Birth of a Year
With the birth of the new year the question will naturally arise, What will it bring us?

Will it be peace, or war? Will it
be plenty, or want?

No human being can answer that question today, though some may
make a ludicrous bluff at doing so.

At no time in the life of the present generation has the birth of a new year been fraught with so much uncertainty with regard to the world
in general and our own country in particular.

We all hope and pray that the war
may end, that after the world may return to some semblance of sanity
and commercial stability. But there is no certainty—only an intense longing for something that is not.

We are pinning our faith to the ability of our country to keep free
from foreign entanglements, but again there is no certainty—only an abiding faith that may be fouted
upon the phantasies of our dreams.

We are looking and longing for the day to come when men will cease to hate one another and return to the more humanizing pursuits of a peaceful life. But our longing results
only in more looking and longing.
There is no peace.

We anticipate a year of great
commercial prosperity for the people
of our own country, and it will be theirs if no unforeseen combination of incidents overturn the tranquility of the nation. But in this, too, there is an "if," and the if is not of our making.

We are promised a year of unexampled activity among the factories, and in the fields, and in all of the marts of trade, but much of it
will depend upon the actions of other nations than ours.

But let us face the future with optimism and with faith, with eyes
open to every essential fact, and with a firm determination to persevere and to conquer in the face of
all obstacles.

Let us dare to be just and right
in all of our dealings with nations
and with individuals, and when sanity returns to the world we will reap
as we have sown.

Let us put our own house in order
and then let us give the world to understand that we are a just and righteous people, that we seek to do
harm to no man or collection of men.

The new year will bring us something, but what that something is to be will depend greatly upon the course we ourselves pursue.

Never in the history of our country has it been put more plainly and emphatically and squarely up to us.

Nineteen sixteen is the year of
political conventions and other bugs.

Just cork up your sarcasm, Ford
didn't mean this Xmas anyway.

Saying the right thing at the right time is the right thing to say. And that's right.

And will General Villa go onto the lecture platform, into vaudeville, or star for the movies.

If they continue drafting new men into the war the survivors may be under the painful necessity of footing their own pension bills.

The man who gets licked has the new dignified satisfaction of knowing he didn't kill the other fellow.

TAKES CITY BY SCRUFF OF NECK

Common Disease Known as Plain
Grip Gets Strangle Hold on
The Whole Community

FEW RULES OF PREVENTION

Epidemic is Widespread and Severe
and Attention of Washington
Bureau is Centered on It.

A day or two ago Washington sent
out a dispatch, through the Public Health Service, calling attention to
a widespread rage of grip, colds,
sore throats and other nasal, bronchial and tracheal troubles, grouped loosely by the laity under the name of grip.

The ailment has taken Rushville
by the scruff of the neck and is shaking it, with infinite pain to those who are shaken, and to them, and
such as they, the mere definition of names amounts to little. What they wish to know is, first, how can they
be relieved of their distress. Second, many of them now want to know, and a few will still want to know after their recovery, how they can avoid a renewal of the attack.

It is to the second part of this problem that the Health Bureau addresses itself; the first, unfortunately for the patient, requires some time
and a deal of patience.

To avoid grip and that family of demoniacal possessions which go
under the same name, wet feet, close,
unventilated rooms, radical changes
in clothing, indiscretion in eating or drinking and close contact with others who have grip, colds or the like, are to be avoided. There are those who scoff at such precautions
and actually seem, by their incessant
good health, to disprove the rules laid down. But they really prove nothing except that they are virtually germ proof. The rules indicated will, it is firmly believed, check the worst epidemic of grip ever suffered
in any community.

About town today news of this,
that and the other person being
away from work because of the epidemic was common. It is roughly estimated that more than fifty persons are affected. Fatalities are not expected, but a vast amount of physical wretchedness is inevitable.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.)

SECRET POLITICAL SOCIETIES

In a speech before the United States Senate in 1876, Morton, in speaking of war time conditions in Indiana, said: "The state was honeycombed with secret societies, formerly known as the Knights of the Golden Circle, but later as Sons of Liberty. They claimed in 1864 to have 40,000 members in the state,
were lawless, defiant plotting treason
against the United States, and the overthrow of the state government.
In some counties their operations were so formidable as to require the militia to be kept on a war footing,
and throughout 1863, and until the final explosion of the organization in August, 1864, they kept the whole
state in uproar and alarm."

For Every Rush County Farmer

And His Wife, Who Attends the Farmers' Short Course at Rushville, Indiana, January 24, 25 and 26

You have nothing to lose and much to gain.

Are you satisfied with your corn, wheat
and clover crops?

Are you handling your soil and fertilizer
problems properly?

YOU WILL GET ANSWERS TO YOUR PROBLEMS IN THE FOLLOWING:

- Six Demonstrations and Lectures in Soils and Crops by J. C. Beavers.
- Six Demonstrations and Lectures in Profitable Dairying by W. O. Mills.
- Four Demonstrations and Lectures on Fruit Growing, Pruning, etc., by C. B. Durham.
- Seven Demonstrations and Lectures on Hog Raising and Live Stock Improvement by J. W. Schwab.
- Six Demonstrations and Lectures on Poultry Raising by L. L. Jones.
- Nine Demonstrations and Lectures for Women by Miss Alma A. Garvin.
- Also Illustrated Lectures on Hog Cholera, Home Grounds Beautification, etc.

We will have real cows, corn, fruit, etc., to handle and study. Everything absolutely practical and easy to understand.

The school begins at one o'clock on the afternoon of January 24th and continues till the afternoon of the 26th. There will also be evening sessions. Morning sessions start at 9 o'clock, giving ample time for the people to get to town. Sessions close at 3:30 p. m., giving the farmer time to get back home and attend to the chores.

All we want to make this school a success is a good attendance. Not one cent of money will leave the county. Purdue University is paying the salaries and the railroad fares of these people. A charge of 50 cents for season tickets will be made to handle the local expense. Get your ticket early from your township vice-president or at any drug store or Bank. Come and bring your wife. Tell your neighbor about it.

IS ONE OF STATES WITH A LOW RATE

Indiana Ranks in Class With Very Small Mortality Per Capita,
Statistics Indicate.

RATE 12.9 PER CENT IN 1914.

It is Placed Seventh in List of States in Country, According
to Census Bureau

Washington, Dec. 28.—Indiana
ranks among states having low death
rates, according to a report made public today by the bureau of the census, setting forth the death rates
of the registration area of the United States in 1914, in comparison with death rates in former years.

The report says:
"Among the states for which
death rates for 1901-1905 are given
the greatest proportional decrease
between that period and 1914 is shown for Rhode Island, 17.4 per cent. Next in order are New York, with a decrease of 14 per cent; New Jersey, 11.8 per cent; Massachusetts, 11.4 per cent; Vermont, 7.4
per cent; Connecticut, 3.5 per cent;
Indiana, 2.3 per cent; Maine, 1.9 per cent; New Hampshire, 1.8 per cent.
The death rate for 1,000 inhabitants for Indiana as a whole in 1914 was 12.9 the lowest since the collection of mortality statistics began.
In 1913 it was 13.3 in 1912 it was 13,

and the average from 1901 to 1905
inclusive was 12.2.

Indiana, as a whole, has a lower death rate than Denver, which is noted as one of the healthiest cities
in the world. The Denver rate is 13.2 a thousand. Indiana has the same death rate as Los Angeles, also noted as a health resort.

The Indianapolis death rate
(total) in 1914 was 15.9 a thousand population. Among the Indianapolis
white it was 15.2 and among the colored residents of the city it was 23.6. Compared with 1913 there was a slight increase in the death rate
among the Indianapolis white and a slight decrease in the colored death rate. Other cities in the same part of the country as Indianapolis had
the following death rates in 1914:
Chicago, 14.2; Louisville, 16.5; Cincinnati, 16; St. Louis, 15.

The death rate for the entire registration area in 1914 was 13.6, the lowest on record.

* WOMEN ON CHICAGO'S CITIZEN POLICE FORCE *

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Hundreds of women were among the first 2000 of Chicago's proposed 20,000 citizen
police force, which went on duty to-
day. They took up their patrol in the politest, as well as the toughest districts in the city. Millionaires'
row along Lake Shore drive and Little Italy a short distance away, were the districts chosen. That women were to be allowed on the force was not known until Louis Damon, Secretary of the Civic Co-operators,
sponsor for the movement, made the announcement today.
"They'll be better than men," said
Damon. "They notice things quicker than men. The force will be comprised mostly of women." When complete, every block in the city will have a citizen policeman or police-women.

REPETITION IS NOW EXPECTED

Every Indication That Record of Democratic Congress in Past Will be Same This Time.

F. P. WOODS OF IOWA TALKS

Two Important Principles Must be Observed in Producing Important Legislation.

Washington, Dec. 28.—"There is every indication that the record of hastily considered, ill-digested and faulty legislation made by the Democratic party in former Congresses is to be repeated this session."

That this is a conclusion from which there is no escape is the judgment of Frank P. Woods of Iowa, Chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee. In a statement issued today Representative Woods outlined the reasons for his opinion.

"No legislative body can produce accurate legislation without observing two important principles," said Mr. Woods. "First, there must be intelligent unity of purpose as to the laws to be written. Second, the methods by which the proposed legislation is to be enacted must permit the correction of defects when they are discovered."

"Even at this early stage of the present session it is apparent that both these requirements are lacking."

"With the party strength reduced to a bare majority in the House, there is a revolt against the most important legislation proposed, namely, provision for more adequate national defenses."

"The amounts asked for enlarging the army and navy involve annual increased expenditures estimated at a quarter of a billion dollars for several years. The responsibility of providing revenue to meet this expenditure falls largely upon the Ways and Means Committee."

"The Chairman of that Committee, Representative Claude Kitchin, has stated that he is opposed to the national defense program. His defection is more serious when it is remembered that his party has been unable to keep our national finances upon a sound basis when only ordinary demands were to be met. Mr. Kitchin himself has already pointed out that there is a serious deficit in the Treasury to be provided for."

"In the Senate the party strength was divided even before the session began. Bitter factional strife marked the organization of a President pro tempore and the proposed cloture rule and it is obvious that the breach will not be healed."

"It is evident, therefore, that there will be no unity of purpose among the Democrats and that their method of procedure in framing laws will prevent the correction of errors even when discovered before enactment. The same methods employed in preceding Congresses, which were so productive of a mass of faulty legislation will be continued during this session."

ARE CHARGED WITH CAUSING STRIKES

Congressman Buchanan and Six Others Are Indicted in New York by Federal Grand Jury

UNDER THE ANTI-TRUST LAW

New York, Dec. 28.—A blanket indictment charging Congressman Frank Buchanan, David Lamar, the "wolf of Wall Street," former Congressman Robert Fowler of Illinois and four others with conspiracy was returned by the federal grand jury here as a result of its investigation into the alleged activities of labor's national peace council.

All are charged with conspiracy under the Sherman anti-trust law through endeavoring to incite labor troubles and interfere with commerce. The government charges that working through Von Rintelen and Lamar, the council sought to bring about strikes in factories manufacturing munitions for the allies.

DEATH FOLLOWS A WEEK'S ILLNESS

Miss Martha Halterman, Age 15, Expires of La Grippe, Complicated by Other Diseases

FUNERAL SET FOR THURSDAY

Miss Martha Halterman, 15 years old, died Tuesday evening at six o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halterman on the Joseph L. Cowing farm southwest of the city. Miss Halterman had been ill for about a week suffering from la grippe and this with a complication of diseases caused her death.

She is survived by her parents, three brothers, Blaine, Ernest and Newton Halterman and three sisters, Berntha, Harriett and Catherine and one half-sister, Mrs. Francis Hewit. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at the Gowdy Methodist church and burial will take place in the cemetery at Moscow.

SEVEN THOUSAND ACRES SETTLED

Land in the Imperial Valley of California is Thrown Open to Settlers Today.

BRINGS TO CLOSE LONG SIEGE

(By United Press.)

Imperial, Cal., Dec. 29.—Seven thousand acres of land in the Imperial Valley were thrown open for entry by the government today, following one of the most remarkable settler sieges on record.

Two months ago hundreds of claimants came upon the land, determined to camp on desirable locations until filing time. For weeks the tense situation has existed. Bearded men, rifles ready, walked sentry-go on their chosen territory, ready to make it not for trespassers. At night scores of bonfires dotted the landscape and in the glow from the flames the settlers could be seen preserving their vigilance. Several men built cabins. On account of conflicting claims, the government may have many legal skeins to unravel.

Notice of Administration.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Rush County, State of Indiana, executor of the last will of Benjamin F. Jackson, late of Rush county, deceased.

INCOME TAX IN FOR HARD WINTER

President, Supreme Court, McAdoo And Committees Have Designs on This Act

ALL SEEK TO CHANGE IT

Secretary of Treasury Wants Taxes on Individuals And Corporations Increased

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 29.—The Income Tax law is in for a long, hard winter. The President, the Supreme Court, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and any number of committees and factions in Congress have designs on the act. It may appear strong and well in the spring, it may be crippled and it may be dead. The fate of the law and of the many amendments which are being planned, rests largely upon the Supreme court's decision in the five cases pending.

If the law comes through that ordeal whole, it must still pass into the hands of congress. President Wilson wants the exemptions of the tax lowered, and the surtax started at a lower figure and increased more rapidly than at present. Secretary McAdoo wants the rates of taxation on both individual and corporate incomes increased, the exemptions reduced from $3,000 to $2,000 for single persons and from $4,000 to $3,000 for married; and the surtax started at $10,000 or $15,000 instead of $20,000. Many administration men in congress will seek to amend the law conformity with these plans.

Senator Owen wants the tax increased to fifty percent on incomes of $50,000 a year and up. Republicans are expected to introduce bills removing the "collection at the source" feature and possibly lightening the surtax. The income tax law became effective Oct. 3, 1913, after a constitutional amendment for it had been ratified by three fourths of the state. Most tax authorities favored it because it was to be the largest trial on this continent of a system designed to make tax dodging difficult.

The administration liked it because it brought a revenue of $80,000,000 a year. Now the administration wants to raise more revenue by this means and opponents of income taxation want to amend it to raise less. The present law provides an exemption up to $3,000 of income for single persons and $4,000 for married persons. One percent is collected on incomes up to $20,000, on amounts between that and $50,000 an additional one percent, and further increases up to six percent on incomes over $500,000.

It is this increase above one percent, the surtax which with "collection at the source" is being fought. To prevent the hiding of incomes the law ordered that all companies paying dividends on stocks and bonds deduct the amount of the tax and pay it to the government before they paid the dividends to the stock and bondholders. This is the "collection at the source" feature. There was an immediate wail when the tax first took effect, and several taxpayers took their cases into court.

These have sifted down to the five now before the Supreme court. In these five almost every provision of the law is attacked, and upon the decision of the court rests the constitutionality of all of these provisions. A decision is expected at any time, but it is possible the court will wait until Justice Lamar, now ill, returns to the bench, before making a decision. Congress is expected to go ahead with its amendments, if the court decision is not returned soon.

Why Do You Suffer Painful Twinge?

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with that headachy, all run-down feeling that is often the result of Kidney trouble.

It is no longer necessary for you to contend with disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff or swollen joints or the heart-wrenching miseries that follow as a result of neglected or poorly working kidneys. Solvax quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Solvax is a wonderful discovery that has always been so uniformly successful that every package is sold under positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve the worst case of kidney disorder.

"Your money back if you want it," is the way Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist, are selling this great kidney remedy. A guarantee like that speaks eloquently for the merit of Solvax.

Do not suffer another minute. Solvax will relieve you. If it doesn't tell Johnson's Drug Store that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

Comforting Words

Many a Rushville Household Will Find Them so.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Rushville readings.

John Heany, 616 West Third street, Rushville, says: "A short time ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The secretions passed too frequently both day and night, obliging me to get up several times. The were also highly colored and filled with sediment. My back was weak and lame too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Johnson's Drug Store, and they relieved me a great deal."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Heany had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

Society and Club News

Edited by MISS FRANCES FRAZEE

The Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church met this afternoon in the church parlors.

* * *

There will be no regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Catholic church tomorrow.

* * *

Miss Lucile Gray entertained at six o'clock dinner last evening Miss Mary Carr, Hal Plummer, of Indianapolis and Tom Fleming, of Anderson.

* * *

Miss Ellen Worsham will entertain the Embroidery Club tomorrow afternoon, at her home at 632 North Morgan street.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Hayes of Connersville and Miss Eleanore Lampton of Milroy were the guests at dinner today of Mrs. Morris Maxey, of this city.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Jones entertained at a delightful dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Bliss, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. John Dickerson, of Lexington, Ky.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wamsley of New Salem were the host and hostess for a most enjoyable oyster supper last evening. It was in the form of a pitch-in and a number of New Salem families were participants in the jolly party.

The holiday meeting of the Century class of the Main street Christian Sunday school will not be held in the basement of the church tonight as planned because of a misunderstanding as to dates. The postponement is for an indefinite time, it was announced.

* * *

Wallace Payne leaves this evening for a houseparty to be given in Iowa City, Iowa, by one of his college friends, Edward Records. The houseparty, which will be attended by five couples, will continue until after New Year's promises to be a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. J. D. Case, of this city was one of the guests today at the beautiful luncheon given at the Y. W. C. A. in Indianapolis. The luncheon was attended by C. W. B. M. members in this district. Mrs. Case, who held several offices in the organization, is Vice-president now.

* * *

Miss Laura Holden, of this city, was among the guests today at a prettily appointed luncheon given in Indianapolis at the home of Miss Ruth Hadde. It was the annual holiday luncheon given by the sorority of which Miss Holden is a member. Decorations suggestive of the yuletide were used throughout the house and made the dining table attractive.

A merry crowd of young people gathered at the home of Miss Katharine Wyatt last evening when they were charmingly entertained at an informal party. Dancing, music and selections from the Victrola made the evening a gay and enjoyable one for the guests. A dainty one course luncheon was served by the hostess. Seven couples were present, the only out-of-town guest being Florence Conner, who is visiting Mrs. Jennie Kincaid.

HILLIGOSS DINNER.

A dinner, worthy of the reputation of the Hilligoss home, was served Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Dora Hilligoss were the cordial host and hostess to a number of their friends and relatives. A delectable turkey dinner was served to the guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Berry Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Elsa Hilligoss, and daughter, Lavon, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Johnson, and family, Mrs. Jonas Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Osborne and son, John, and Mrs. Sparks.

PITCH-IN SUPPER.

Many and delightful are the advantages of "Pitch-in" dinners. Aside from the advantages for the hostess, the mere word guarantees a good time because of the informality. A good time is promised at the pitch-in given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson at their home this evening. Those who will attend are the following; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Barringer, and Miss Hazel Matlock. The Christmas colors, red and green, have been used to make the home attractive for the occasion.

ANDERSON DINNER.

Delightful indeed was the family dinner given today by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Anderson at their hospitable home, south of the city. The dinner was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, of Richland who were recently married. It added greatly to the pleasure of the sumptuous dinner to have Mrs. Anderson, who has been ill for some time, able to welcome her guests. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Senour, from Riley, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, from Diehlman, Mrs. S. A. Bartlett, from Milroy, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson.

PSI IOTA XI.

Christmas decorations, artistically and tastefully used, made the dining room at the Scanlan House attractive last evening when the members of Psi Iota Xi held their annual banquet in honor of the college students who are home for the holidays. The eighteen guests were seated at tables for four, the center of each table being adorned with a tiny Christmas tree, trimmed with strands of tinsel and miniature red candles. Over each table an electric light, dimmed by a red paper shade, hung low. The places were marked by dainty Christmas cards. A sumptuous three course dinner was served, after which the sorority song was sung by the members.

Preceding the banquet, an informal Christmas party was held at the home of Miss Marguerite Wolcott. Music furnished by the members was enjoyed during the afternoon, and each guest received a Christmas present from the grab bag.

After the dinner, the girls closed the round of pleasure with a theatre party. The out-of-town guests were Miss Madeline Lord, of Seford, Del., who is visiting Miss Jean McClanahan, and Mrs. George Dehority of Elwood.

HOUSEPARTY.

Reports received here from the Misses Dorothy Sparks, Dorothy Mulno, and Lois Reeves indicate that every element is combining to make the houseparty which they are attending at Huntington, W. Va., faultless in giving the guests a good time. Upon their arrival Sunday evening, an elaborate six o'clock dinner was given in their honor, after which thirty young people called at the Bell home to meet the houseparty guests. Monday afternoon, one hundred guests attended the tea given in their honor. And so the week, every day of which promises one or more functions for the fortunate guests, has started. The hostess, Miss Lillian Bell of Huntington, W. Va., is a niece of the Misses Leonora and Alice Norris, and has frequently visited in this city. The following clipping from the Huntington Advertiser is but a sample of the merry round of pleasure being given in honor of the Rushville girls.

A brilliant opening to the many handsome social affairs of the Yuletide was the tea given this afternoon by Miss Lillian Bell, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bell, when she presented to a large coterie of friends, her attractive house guests, Misses Dorothy Mulno, Lois Reeves and Dorothy Sparks of Rushville, Ind. The holiday spirit prevailed everywhere. Holly with its crimson berries, carried out beautifully the color scheme, red and green. Upon entering the hospitable portals of the home you were met at the door by little Miss Margaret Bishop, and in the hall cordial greetings were extended by Miss Aleen Stevens, and Mrs. Helen Tufts Lanhon. Mrs. Bell, Miss Lillian Bell, Misses Mulno, Sparks and Reeves all beautifully attired in evening gowns, received in the living room the visitors, and all won instant favor by their gracious charm of manner. Miss Helen Hutchinson also lent her aid in this apartment. Around a table of unusual beauty, characterized by an artistic floral embellishment of red roses in gilded baskets, capped candles all in red hues, the guests enjoyed a delectable menu consisting of salad and ices. Miss Mabel Adams, in her graciousness manner, poured tea, while Miss Fay Douthit presided at the coffee urn. Others assisting in the dining room were Mrs. R. C. Bell, Miss Lillian Bell, Misses Anna Wood, Marjorie Cuniff and Kathryn Hutchinson. About one hundred guests were in attendance enjoying to the fullest this very delightful hospitality.

It was thought for a time Tuesday evening that Miss Blanch Peters, who had been visiting her father, Walter Peters, here had been lost in Indianapolis when her mother telegraphed to Rushville from Indianapolis that Blanch had not arrived on the car on which she was supposed to have left here. It later developed Blanch got off at Alabama street, where Mrs. Peters was not expecting her, and went on home. Mr. Peters called Mrs. Peters' home by telephone and Blanch answered. She had not known where to call her mother to notify her that her lost daughter was safe.

The greatest enemy of your teeth

When scientists recently discovered the cause of that dread disease, pyorrhea, they discovered the greatest enemy of your teeth. Why yours? Because the germ that causes this disease inhabits every human mouth!

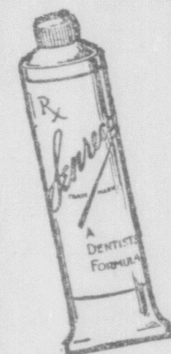

Your dentist will tell you that half of all the permanent teeth lost are lost from this disease. This is because people have not realized before that everyone should take precautions against this enemy. You can start now to ward off its constant attack and escape the terrible results of this disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Santanel Remedies Co., 502 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MANY CRISES WERE PASSED

United States Faced Many Difficult Problems With Other Countries in Past Year

RECORD FOR NOTE WRITING

Relations Were Near Breaking Point on Several Occasions—Bright Future in Store

By BOND P. GEDDES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 29.—An epochal year in United States' relations with the world family of nations marked 1915. Serious crises marked the twelvemonth; and more threaten in 1916. This nation passed safely through the vortex of the world war though often very near severing relations with European powers. Its peace has been threatened from within and without.

The country faces in the new year more delicate problems, including new and old disputes with Europe's belligerents.

The killing of over 100 Americans on the high seas, destruction, seizure and attacks upon American vessels, ruthless confiscation of American property and interference with American commerce; dismissal of foreign diplomats; resignation of its own Secretary of State, and European criticism of its neutrality were the outstanding events of 1915 in American world diplomacy.

Peaceful settlement of the dispute with Austria over her attack upon the Italian liner Ancona, with England over her trade interferences, with Germany over the Lusitania incident and with the Teutonic powers over unneutral conspiracies in this country were the quartet of dominant and delicate problems facing us in 1916.

Red Letter days on the 1915 calendar were:

March, 15—England's blockade of Germany; May 7—Sinking of the Lusitania; June 9—Secretary Bryan's resignation; Aug. 19—Sinking of the Arabic; Sept. 10—Recall of Austrian Ambassador Dumba; Oct. 4—Half billion loan to the allies; Nov. 9—Sinking of the Ancona; Dec. 6—Recall of German Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen.

These and numberless entanglements of the war caused Uncle Sam to break all records in diplomatic note writing. Hundreds of notes were sent. The chief year's diplomatic victory was the enforced modification by Germany of her submarine warfare.

Today the United States stands with increased power and prestige, but still weighted with the task of perfecting peaceful settlements with England, France, Germany and Austria in most delicate and difficult complications. The passing year was rife with diplomatic dynamite. A chronicle of the more important international events follows:

Jan. 5—U. S. agrees with England to certify non-contraband cargoes. 8—England denied unduly seizing American ships. 11—England protested transfer of cotton steamer Dacia from German to U. S. registry. 28—American schooner William P. Frye sunk by steamer raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

February, 5—Because of German government confiscating all food-stuffs, England seized American grain steamer Wilhelmina. 11—U. S. warned England and Germany not to abuse use of American flag or attack American ships. 16—German submarine blockade of England protested. 18—British note denies American commerce injured. 19—German note rejected. American protest against sinking neutral ships in war zone about England. 20—Two notes from England affirmed right to seize steamer Wilhelmina and promised limited use of American flag. 21—American cotton steamer Evelyn sunk by mine, one American killed. 23—American cotton steamer Carib sunk by mine, two Americans killed. 27—Government began probing supplying of German warships from New York by Hamburg-American line officials. 28—France seized Dacia.

March 10—German raider Prinz

Eitel Friedrich arrived at Newport News and later interned. 28—Leon Thrasher, American, killed when German submarine torpedoed British steamer Falaba.

April 1—French $50,000,000 loan negotiated. 5—U. S. asks Germany for reparation for schooner William P. Frye. 6—France released August Piepenbrink, German seized on American steamer. Note to England declares German blockade illegal. 7—Prinz Eitel Friedrich interned. Germany protested against steamer Odenwald's detention at San Juan, Porto Rico. 11—German raider Kronprinz Wilhelm reached Newport News. 12—Germany protests against American munitions sales to allies. 21—State Department advises Germany munitions sales are made legal right. 26—Kronprinz Wilhelm interned.

May 1—Lusitania sailed from New York despite German embassy warnings. 3—American steamer Gulf-tight torpedoed by German submarine, off Scilly Isles, three Americans killed. 7—Lusitania torpedoed by German submarine, 114 Americans killed, 13—U. S. note to Germany demands disavowal Lusitania attack, reparation and cessation of submarine of ships carrying non-combatants. 25—American steamer Nebaskan sunk by mine or torpedoed. 30—Germany delivers reply note to Ambassador Gerard regarding Lusitania, alleging vessel armed.

June 5—German notes regret attacks on Cushing and Gulf-tight. 9—Secretary of State Bryan resigns. 10—U. S. sends second Lusitania note to Germany holding her to strict accountability. 25—England refuses to abandon German blockade. 29—Canadian liner Armenian torpedoed. 21—American hostlers killed.

July, 7—Navy Department takes control of German wireless plant at Sayville, L. I. 16—Austria in note protests against munitions sales to allies. 18—Cunarder Orduna unsuccessfully chased by submarine. 23—U. S. sends third Lusitania note to Germany, advising that a repitition will be considered "deliberately unfriendly." 27—American steamer Leelana submarined, crew saved.

August, 4—Three notes from England uphold orders-in-council, German blockade and American commerce interferences. Note from Germany defends schooner William P. Frye but agrees to payment of damages. 16—U. S. advises Austria that munitions sales are legal. Correspondence revealing operations of German agents published. 19—Arabie torpedoed, two Americans killed.

September 1—Ambassador Bernstorff notified State Department Germany agrees to sink no more liners without warning. 2—James F. J. ## Simple Remedy For Catarrh

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigation, R. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomei this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomei is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathe the air of Hyomei through the little inhaler druggists furnish with it for a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete and lasting relief.

In Rushville there are scores of well known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you Johnson's Drug Store will return the money you paid for Hyomei. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to their faith in this remedy.

READY TO STAND BY HIS RECORD

James E. Watson Makes This Assertion in Speech at Greensburg, Closing Tour of County.

ASKS SUPPORT OF PEOPLE

Declares That This Government Must Return to Protective Tariff Principles.

Declaring that he would stand by his record in his race for the Republican nomination for United States Senator from Indiana, James E. Watson, of Rushville, Monday night closed a stirring speech, in which he flayed the present national administration for what he termed their utter inability to cope with the great questions which concern the welfare of the government, says the Greensburg Review.

Mr. Watson had a busy day Monday. Visiting every town in the county, he met many old friends and acquaintances and at each and every stop he talked briefly on the issues of the day. Accompanied by many Greensburg boosters, the trip was started and after several delays, occasioned by breakdowns to the machine, the tour ended in this city.

The meeting was held in the G. A. R. hall, and despite the bad weather, large crowd was present. Mr. Watson was introduced by John W. Rhodes.

James E. Watson brought a message worth hearing, and his explanation of the great question which promises to be the leading issue in next year's campaign—the tariff—caught the crowd right. Mr. Watson stated that he had studied the tariff question for a quarter of a century and said that he felt like he ought to know something about it.

Mr. Watson took the national administration to task for the Mexican policy and referred to the A. B. C. convention, held at Niagara Falls, as a subterfuge for Wilson, who instead of keeping us from getting into war in Mexico in reality had gotten us into war in that revolution-torn country, and wanted to cover up his mistake by the convention. It is a singular thing, the speaker said, that nothing was ever heard of the convention and the good that was accomplished. Mr. Watson declared that Carranza, present head of the Mexican government, was infinitely worse than Huerta, who was deposed.

The doctrine of the protective tariff, and the absolute necessity for the enactment of a tariff law that protects, is essential, if conditions suitable to the laboring man obtain in this country, the speaker declared. He did not burden the audience with a lengthy discussion of the various phases of good that come from a protective tariff, but gave many illustrations to prove his points.

Mr. Watson declared that the Democratic battle-cries of the next campaign would be "Stand by the President, he's kept us out of war." In answering this he said that Wilson couldn't have got us into war in Europe to save his life. "We haven't enough colliers to take our fleet across the Atlantic, if we would have

war." The speaker said that if war was declared between Germany and the United States, the ambassadors would be called home by each of the governments and we would stand and make faces at the Kaiser. "That's as far as we would get with war," shouted the speaker. "We haven't the necessary navy to put up a fight." "Stand by the President, he's kept us out of war!"

In speaking of preparedness, Mr. Watson declared that he stood where he always had stood, for a merchant marine, a powerful system of merchant vessels which could be used in times of war. Mr. Watson pointed out to the audience his record in congress and the untiring fight he made for a merchant marine. He said that the Democrats were always opposed to subsidiary legislation.

Mr. Watson ridiculed the administration for the various tax measures that had been imposed and said that the government now was facing the ultimatum—the sale of bonds to keep the wheel of the government moving.

In speaking of his candidacy for the nomination for United States Senator, Mr. Watson spoke a kind word for his opponents, and said that if experience was worth anything, he believed he ought to have the preference.

He told of the question raised when he first entered the race in which it was said that he couldn't get the Progressive vote. In this connection he said that at the time of the Chicago convention, when the Republican party had a family fuss, Harry New was national committee-man, that he assisted in making temporary roll for convention. The question of southern representation was decided by the national committee long before Mr. Watson arrived at the convention. This was what the split in the party resulted from and Mr. Watson said that Mr. New was as deep in the mud as he was in the mire, if that argument was to be presented.

But Mr. Watson went further. He said that he had assurances of support from practically all the Progressive leaders. In stating this he said that he had always been given the credit for fighting in the open, that they always knew where to find him, and that he never hit below the belt.

"This story of the tariff will have to be told from the stump next campaign and if I may be vain enough to say it, I believe I know more about the tariff than any other living man. I am making a campaign of education now and it will have to be made later on. I want the nomination for senator and it is a laudable ambition," he declared.

Mr. Watson's speech was very well received. He was interrupted by applause at frequent intervals. The address was such as Mr. Watson has the ability to make, forceful and convincing. The Republican party with his time tested, honorable and true principles lifted this nation to the very apex of power in 1912 and in 1916 will again lift it to its rightful position, to stand, the admiration of the world, he said.

Mr. Watson was well pleased with his visit in this county, and expressed himself as much satisfied with the assurance of support. Tuesday he went to Jackson county where he appeared on a K. of P. program at Crothersville. It is his intention to visit each county in the state before the primary March 7.

lines. Workmen for the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company had a mighty task on their hands with complaints coming in of poles down and wires entangled.

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company was also having some trouble because of the heavy coating of ice on all of the wires.

George Davis, manager of the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company, said that there were just four circuits out of the Rushville exchange this morning, but during the day several were cleared up so that they could be used. All of the exchanges in the county were cut off from Rushville today, with the exception of Milroy.

Discussing the mishap to the lines south of Rushville Mr. Davis said it was clearly the weight of the sleet and ice that caused the poles to fall and not any weakness of the poles. They snapped off eight or ten feet above the ground, he said, and not right on the level with the ground.

Mr. Davis said that he never saw a worse mess in his experience with storm the character of the one here today. He declared that some of the wires were covered with ice until they were the size of an average man's wrist. The effect of the wind was seen in some instances, he said, causing the icy wires to be rectangular in shape.

Rushville was cut off from all communication with Indianapolis today because there was not a telephone line that could be used.

SLEET CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE

Greatest Loss Sustained at E. R. Casady's Store Where Water Leaks in Through Roof.

ALSO REACHES FIRST FLOOR

Walking is Jeopardized by Falling Limbs Weighed Down by Coating of Ice.

The rain and sleet of last night coming as it did on top of four inches of snow caused a great amount of damage because of leaky roofs. Shade trees in this city and county were greatly damaged. The weight of the snow caused many limbs to break off.

Many business houses were damaged by water. Down spouts failed to carry the water and when it banked up on the roofs numerous leaks resulted. The greatest damage resulted at the E. R. Casady store. It was estimated this morning that the damage at the Casady store would reach $2,500.

A bad leak in the roof let the water down into the store in torrents. Fifty fine rugs were damaged by the water on the second floor and then it seeped through the first floor. On the first floor a heavy loss was sustained when the water came in contact with a large amount of calico, cotton goods, underwear and blankets. In the dressmaking department two machines were badly damaged. One of the machines was practically new.

The interior of the store resembled the after effects of a fire because there was so much water. The loss in the rug and carpet department was especially heavy. It was stated that because of the steady advancing price of carpets, rugs and linoleums the store had purchased and had on hands larger stock than was ordinarily the case and because of this the loss was much greater. Some fine Persian rugs were included in the list that was damaged by the water.

It is believed that the water dripped through from the roof all night, as the volume of water was exceedingly great. The discovery was made this morning by Knowles Casady when he opened the store for the day's business. Mr. Casady intends to have his loss appraised in order to get the exact amount of damage.

The city park resembled a huge trash pile. Many limbs were broken off, including some of the larger ones. The weight of the snow also broke off limbs from trees all over the city. Walking at an early hour this morning was also very bad. The paths were filled and backed up with water and slush and there was hardly a good crossing in the entire city. Walking on the sidewalks was dangerous because of the falling limbs weighed down by ice.

The ice and snow played havoc with the wire communications. There were reports from all over the county of wires down and broken wire service. Probably the worst damage in the county was done to the telephone line between here and New Salem. About two miles from Rushville, two and one-half miles of wire were down and in a tangled mass across the road.

This condition made it impossible for Woodford Casady, carrier on rural route No. 1, to cover his route today. When he reached the tangled mass of wire over the road, he had to return to the postoffice the patrons of rural route one had to do with out their mail today.

Reports came from all over the county today of damaged telephones.

"Uncle Jeff" Davis Puts in Valiant Licks For Watson.

"Uncle" Jeff Davis of near Clarksburg, an ardent admirer and supporter of James E. Watson has been circulating the petition of the local man in Decatur county to have his name placed on the primary ballot as a candidate for United States senator. How well "Uncle" Jeff has succeeded can be seen by the fact that he has over 500 signers to the petition. The names are not confined to the Clarksburg neighborhood but takes in all parts of the county and "Uncle" Jeff declares that he did not work very hard.

DON'T PUT TOO MUCH FAITH IN THE CLOCK

Hands on East Dial Had to be Discontinued Because They Were Frozen by Snow and Sleet.

MAY AFFECT OTHER DIALS

Joe Dickman, custodian of the court house, said that too much dependence must not be placed in the court house clock because the east dial was out of commission last night by the sleet and snow. A strong east wind drove the sleet and snow into the place which supports the hands and they froze up, stopping the clock. Mr. Dickman called Jess Poe and the hands on the east face were disconnected and the clock started. The hands on the east dial will not be in running order until they are thoroughly thawed out.

Whether that would affect the other hands was not certain, in the opinion of Mr. Poe. He said he felt certain that the hands would show the correct time the first half hour, or as they go down, but the last half of the hour was problematical, he said. With the hands on the east dial disconnected, there was chance of the others showing the wrong time.

NEW COMPANY GETS PRINTING CONTRACT

Muncie Firm is Awarded Job For 1916 Because Prices are Lower Than Levy Brothers.

SOME EXAMPLES ARE GIVEN

As was expected the contract for the county printing was awarded to the A. E. Boyce and Company of Muncie by the county commissioners late Tuesday afternoon. The bid of this firm was generally lower than Levy Brothers, the only other bidder. The county will save about $400 on tax receipts alone. The bid of Levy Brothers for tax receipts was $1 for eighty and the Boyce company submitted a bid of sixty cents for eighty receipts.

The bid of the Boyce company was from two to four cents cheaper per page over that of the other bidder. The Boyce company has done the county printing for Henry county for the past fourteen years and has held the contract in Fayette county for the past seven years. The commissioners adjourned yesterday to meet again Friday when the year's business will be closed and a table cleared for the new year, which means Monday.

NEXT MEETING HOLDS INTEREST

First Session of New Board of Commissioners Will be Time For Filling Appointive Offices.

SEVERAL NAMES MENTIONED

Interest in local politics centers in the meeting of the county commissioners next Monday. At that time the board will have a Republican majority for the first time in two years. The new commissioner is John T. Bowles of Center township. The Republican members of the board will be P. A. Newhouse and Mr. Bowles and the Democratic hold-over member is William Moore.

Interest in this meeting is largely because of a number of appointive offices to be filled. It has been the custom for years to make the appointments along political lines, selecting the men from the party having the majority of the membership on the board. A number of candidates have been mentioned for the various appointments.

Three well known attorneys have been spoken of for the position of county attorney. The names of John A. Tinsworth, Chauncey Duncan and George W. Young have been mentioned for this office. Friends of these candidates have been busy during the past few weeks working in their behalf. Owing to other business and the necessary reorganization of the board the appointments will not likely be made next Monday.

Several candidates have also been mentioned for the position of county road superintendent to succeed J. C. King. The two names most prominently heard are Hal Green and Peter Maffett. Mr. Green has had experience in road work, having served as supervisor of roads in Jackson township. Both are well known over the county and either would make a good road superintendent.

It is more than likely that Newton Newbold will retain his position as superintendent of the county poor farm. His time is not up until next summer and as this position is not an easy one to fill, the position may be offered to him again, it is said.

Chester Peck, who takes his office as recorder of Rush county Saturday, has announced that his deputy will be Mrs. Fanny Study. Mrs. Study served as deputy auditor under Jesse Stone and should prove an efficient deputy for Mr. Peck. Charles Brooks, retiring recorder will engage in the bonding business with A. C. Brown. Mr. Peck has been in the recorder's office for the past month becoming acquainted with the work. The term of Joe Dickman, custodian of the court house, expires May 1, but no one has been mentioned for that place.

RABBIT BONE IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Edwin Macy, Age 35 Years, Expires From Effects of Swallowing Small Piece While Laughing.

WALLS OF STOMACH PIERCED

Post Mortem Fails to Reveal Bone But Shows What Caused Death. Funeral on Thursday.

Edwin Macy, age thirty-five years, is dead at his home south of Carthage from the effects of swallowing a small rabbit bone. He suffered for more than a week before death finally relieved his suffering. The bone ent a hole in his stomach and an abscess formed, causing him to have a hemorrhage Sunday and another just before his death Monday night.

Mr. Macy about two weeks ago was eating a piece of rabbit at the supper table, and something was said which caused a ripple of laughter and it was then thought that Mr. Macy swallowed a small piece of the rabbit bone. The bone is thought to have gone into the stomach and perforated that organ, causing severe pain and hemorrhages. Death came at 6:55 Monday evening following a short period of restfulness and followed by a severe hemorrhage, which hastened the end. Mr. Macy was born in Union township, Shelby county, January 21, 1880, and was the son of William and Caroline Macy. His entire life up until nine years ago, when he moved to the farm near Carthage were spent in Shelby county.

His marriage to Miss Alice Brooks was solemnized on October 11, 1906. No children were born of the union. Deceased is survived by his parents, who made their home with him; one brother, Herman Macy, of Shelby county, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Wicker, near Morristown.

Several well known physicians were called to attend Mr. Macy and at 10:30 Tuesday morning a post mortem was held to determine the exact cause of his death.

The physicians found that the bone had severed an artery in the stomach, but were unable to locate the fatal bit as it has passed into the intestines.

The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Walnut Ridge Friends church, of which he was a member. Interment will be made in the Walnut Ridge cemetery near Carthage.

Eight of the charter members have found husbands since the club was organized, and two have resigned in anticipation of marriage.

PECULIAR FACTS ABOUT WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

* Harrisburgh, Pa., Dec. 29.—J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic Association and widely known lecturer on the City Beautiful has a natural aversion to tobacco which he cannot conquer. When he lectures at a men's club where smoking is permitted the weed must be barred for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. O'Neal are both suffering from an attack of influenza.

GAVE OUT SIXTY BASKETS

Salvation Army Makes Report on Christmas Activities.

Captain Thorpe of the Salvation Army announced today that the Army gave out sixty baskets at Christmas time. Each basket contained a rich assortment of food, the value of which was $3.15. Judge Will M. Sparks and Mayor C. L. Bebout supervised the filling of the baskets and aided in the work. At the Christmas tree exercises at the Army hall in South Pearl street on Christmas night seventy-eight presents and seventy-eight bags of candy, popcorn and nuts were given to the children.

SCHEDULE OUT FOR THE WEEK OF PRAYER

Annual Services of Rushville Churches Will Culminate in Church Attendance Day.

THE FIRST ONE NEXT MONDAY

The schedule for the week of prayer to be observed by the Protestant churches next week was announced today. The week of prayer will culminate in Church Attendance Day, Sunday, January 9. Every citizen of Rushville is urged to attend some church service in one of Rushville's churches that day. St. Mary's Catholic church will co-operate in the observance of Church Attendance Day. The week of prayer services will begin each night at 7:30 and will be arranged as follows:

Monday, Jan. 3.—First Baptist, the Rev. D. Ira Lambert, preacher; Tuesday, Jan. 4.—First Presbyterian, the Rev. J. T. Aikin, preacher; Wednesday, Jan. 5.—United Presbyterian, the Rev. S. G. Huntington, preacher; Thursday, Jan. 6.—St. Paul M. E., the Rev. C. M. Yocum, preacher; Friday, Jan. 7.—Main Street Christian, the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt, preacher.

The Rev. John T. Aikin of Wilmerding, Pa., will fill the pulpit at the United Presbyterian church next Sunday and the Sunday following.

TICKETS FOR SHORT COURSE SENT OUT

SELL FOR FIFTY CENTS EACH

Tickets for the Farmers Short Course to be held here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 4, 25 and 26, were sent to the various township vice-presidents this afternoon and will be received by them in the morning. They will also be placed on sale at all of the drug stores and banks in Rushville by F. J. Wolcott, chairman of the ticket committee. The tickets will sell for fifty cents each and will admit the holder to any section of the short course or any and all night meetings. The short course promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Rushville and active preparations are under way to make the success that it deserves. It will be an afternoon and evening course, the sessions and special classes and demonstrations will be held. The program has already been announced.

RUSH COUNTY TO SEND BIG CROWD

Inclement Weather Will Not Deter Republicans Going to State Wide Love Feast.

AT INDIANAPOLIS THURSDAY

Delegations Are Expected From All Corners of State For Meeting at Murat Theater.

Inclement weather today failed to dampen the ardor in the least of the Republicans of Rush county who are going to Indianapolis Thursday for the state-wide love feast which will be held in the Murat theater in the afternoon.

Rush county will vie with other counties of the state in the size of the crowd she sends because she does not expect to be outdone by any other county especially since there is from this county a candidate for the nomination to the highest place on the state ticket.

The delegation will leave in special cars over the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's lines directly after the dispatch at 9:04 Thursday morning. The local crowd expects to make a big demonstration for James E. Watson. After arrival in Indianapolis, the crowd will go to the Severin hotel where Watson and a number of other candidates for places on the state ticket have headquarters.

The gathering at Indianapolis will be the first state-wide love feast the Republicans have held in late years. The indications are that the event will be the largest in point of attendance and interest of any ever held by any party in Indiana.

The love feast will be held at the Murat theater and will begin at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Will Hays, chairman of the state committee, will be the presiding officer. Although all the candidates for United States senator and all those aspiring to state offices will be present, they will not be called on for speeches.

Secretary Henley of the state committee has received word from several cities from which special trains are to be run to Indianapolis. All of the candidates have engaged headquarters at the Hotel Severin and some of them will have delegations with bands from home to arouse interest.

The feature of national interest at the love feast will be the attention paid to the candidacy of Charles W. Fairbanks for the nomination for president. Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, who is to be the chief speaker is one of the advocates of the nomination of Fairbanks. He is an eloquent speaker and it is the understanding that he is to devote considerable time to the subject.

Why Not the Easy Way, Mr. Store-keeper?

The storekeeper who senses and moves with the current of public thought succeeds.

Such a storekeeper is first of all a newspaper reader and especially a reader of newspaper advertising.

He knows that when an advertisement of a product appears that the public mind will think about it.

He tunes his window to the advertising.

He shows the newspaper advertised goods—he finds it the easy way to attract trade.

Amusements

The Princess will show "Neat of the Navy" for the first picture to night. This episode is entitled "The Sun Worshipers." This is one of the most exciting episodes of the entire series. The other picture is a two reel drama entitled "The Spider." Ruth Stonehouse is featured in this one. Tomorrow night Charles Chaplin will be shown in his latest comedy "A Night at the Show." It is in two acts and it said to be one of his best efforts. On Friday night Nat Goodwin, the famous actor will be seen in "The Master Hand."

One of the most gripping dramas of the present moving picture season is "The Man of Shame," which comes to the Gem theatre tonight. It features that renowned actor, Wilton Lackaye, who is seen in a dual role, which somewhat resembles the Jekyll and Hyde of Robert Louis Stevenson.

The picture was produced under the direction of Harry C. Myers, who is one of the foremost directors in the film to-day, and he has made a picture which will certainly amuse all moving picture patrons.

Princess — Thursday

The distance the fumes had been carried by the wind reduced their strength.

He Swore at The King

London, Dec. 1 (By Mail).—A touch of wartime humor at the expense of King George leaked through from Sandringham today. It was during the King's recent visit to his country place. Unattended one evening at dusk the King went for a short stroll through the grounds. He was soon interrupted by a peremptory "Halt!"
"Who goes there?" demanded a sentry. There was no reply. The sentry repeated his challenge, sternly.
"Who goes there?" he thundered.
"The King," meekly answered the monarch.
"Well, why in the hell didn't you say so?" blurted the soldier. And then he tried to apologize. But the King was too prompt. Ignoring the offered apology he quickly and smilingly commended the Tommy for his vigilance.
Fresh supply Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat Flour at your grocers.

Paris, Nov. 20 (By Mail).—Weeping shells used by the Germans to blind the enemy with his own tears, precipitated in at least one instance what comes near being the ludicrous incident of the war. During a recent weeping shell bombardment by the Germans a regiment of French cavalry dismounted back of the line of fire. A gust of wind caught the sorrowful fumes and wafted them gently to where the horses and cavalrymen were at their ease. Suddenly, without apparent reason, every cavalryman beheld his horse burst into tears as though the price of oats had suddenly risen to a figure beyond equine financial possibilities. Then, as if in sudden sympathy the cavalrymen also burst into tears. The situation is declared by officers to have been incredible ludicrous. The cavalrymen were impelled to such gales of laughter at sight of the crying horses that if the Germans had attacked at that moment the entire regiment would easily have been wiped out. So far as could be ascertained, horses and men suffered no serious consequence from having availed themselves of a woman's privilege.

Birth of a Year

With the birth of the new year the
question will naturally arise, What
will it bring us?

Will it be peace, or war? Will it
be plenty, or want?

No human being can answer that question today, though some may
make a ludicrous bluff at doing so.

At no time in the life of the present generation has the birth of a
new year been fraught with so much
uncertainty with regard to the world
in general and our own country in particular.

We all hope and pray that the war
may end, that after the world may
return to some semblance of sanity
and commercial stability. But there is no certainty—only an intense
longing for something that is not.

We are pinning our faith to the ability of our country to keep free
from foreign entanglements, but
again there is no certainty—only an unbiding faith that may be founded
upon the phantasies of our dreams.

We are looking and longing for the
day to come when men will cease to butcher one another and return to the more humanizing pursuits of a peaceful life. But our longing results
only in more looking and longing.
There is no peace.

We anticipate a year of great
commercial prosperity for the people
of our own country, and it will be theirs if no unforeseen combination of
incidents overturn the tranquility of
the nation. But in this, too, there is an "if" and the if is not of our
making.

We are promised a year of un-
exampled activity among the factories, and in the fields, and in all
of the marts of trade, but much of it
will depend upon the actions of other nations than ours.

But let us face the future with optimism and with faith, with eyes
open to every essential fact, and
with a firm determination to persevere and to conquer in the face of
all obstacles.

Let us dare to be just and right
in all of our dealings with nations,
and with individuals, and when san-
ity returns to the world we will reap
as we have sown.

Let us put our own house in order,
and then let us give the world to understand that we are a just and
righteous people, that we seek to do
harm to no man or collection of men.
The new year will bring us something, but what that something is to
be will depend greatly upon the
course we ourselves pursue.

Never in the history of our country has it been put more plainly and
emphatically and squarely up to us.

Nineteen sixteen is the year of
political conventions and other bugs.

Just cork up your sarcasm, Ford
didn't mean this Xmas anyway.

Saying the right thing at the right
time is the right thing to say. And
that's right.

And will General Villa go onto the
lecture platform, into vaudeville, or

TAKES CITY BY SCRUFF OF NECK

Common Disease Known as Plain
Grip Gets Strangle Hold on
The Whole Community

FEW RULES OF PREVENTION

Epidemic is Widespread and Severe
and Attention of Washington
Bureau is Centered on It.

A day or two ago Washington sent
out a dispatch, through the Public Health Service, calling attention to
a widespread rage of grip, colds,
sore throats and other nasal, bronchial and tracheal troubles, grouped loosely by the laity under the name of grip.

The ailment has taken Rushville
by the scruff of the neck and is
shaking it, with infinite pain to those who are shaken, and to them, and
such as they, the mere definition of names amounts to little. What they wish to know is, first, how can they
be relieved of their distress. Second, many of them now want to know, and a few will still want to know after their recovery, how they
can avoid a renewal of the attack.

It is to the second part of this
problem that the Health Bureau addresses itself; the first, unfortunately
for the patient, requires some time
and a deal of patience.

To avoid grip and that family of
demoniacal possessions which go
under the same name, wet feet, close,
unventilated rooms, radical changes
in clothing, indiscretion in eating
or drinking and close contact with others who have grip, colds or the like, are to be avoided. There are those who scoff at such precautions
and actually seem, by their incessant
good health, to disprove the rules
laid down. But they really prove
nothing except that they are virtually germ proof. The rules indicated
will, it is firmly believed, check the worst epidemic of grip ever suffered
in any community.

About town today news of this,
that and the other person being
away from work because of the epidemic was common. It is roughly estimated that more than fifty persons are affected. Fatalities are not expected, but a vast amount of physical wretchedness is inevitable.

Indiana Historical Commission.)

SECRET POLITICAL SOCIETIES

In a speech before the United States Senate in 1876, Morton, in speaking of war time conditions in Indiana, said: "The state was honey-
combed with secret societies, formerly known as the Knights of the Golden Circle, but later as Sons of Liberty. They claimed in 1864 to
have 40,000 members in the state,
were lawless, defiant plotting treason
against the United States, and the overthrow of the state government.
In some counties their operations
were so formidable as to require the
militia to be kept on a war footing,
and throughout 1863, and until the final explosion of the organization in August, 1864, they kept the whole
state in uproar and alarm."

For Every Rush County Farmer

And His Wife, Who Attends the Farmers' Short Course at Rushville, Indiana, January 24, 25 and 26

You have nothing to lose and much to
gain.

Are you satisfied with your corn, wheat
and clover crops?

Are you handling your soil and fertilizer
problems properly?

YOU WILL GET ANSWERS TO YOUR PROBLEMS IN THE FOLLOWING:

Six Demonstrations and Lectures in Soils and Crops by J. C. Beavers.

Six Demonstrations and Lectures in Profitable Dairying by W. O. Mills.

Four Demonstrations and Lectures on Fruit Growing, Pruning, etc., by C. B. Durham.

Seven Demonstrations and Lectures on Hog Raising and Live Stock Improvement by J. W. Schwab.

Six Demonstrations and Lectures on Poultry Raising by L. L. Jones.

Nine Demonstrations and Lectures for Women by Miss Alma A. Garvin.

Also Illustrated Lectures on Hog Cholera, Home Grounds Beautification, etc.

We will have real cows, corn, fruit, etc., to handle and study. Everything absolutely practical and easy to understand.

The school begins at one o'clock on the afternoon of January 24th and continues till the afternoon of the 26th. There will also be evening sessions. Morning sessions start at 9 o'clock, giving ample time for the people to get to town. Sessions close at 3:30 p. m., giving the farmer time to get back home and attend to the chores.

All we want to make this school a success is a good attendance. Not one cent of money will leave the county. Purdue University is paying the salaries and the railroad fares of these people. A charge of 50 cents for season tickets will be made to handle the local expense. Get your ticket early from your township vice-president or at any drug store or Bank. Come and bring your wife. Tell your neighbor about it.

IS ONE OF STATES WITH A LOW RATE

Indiana Ranks in Class With Very
Small Mortality Per Capita,
Statistics Indicate.

RATE 12.9 PER CENT IN 1914.

It is Placed Seventh in List of States in Country, According
to Census Bureau

Washington, Dec. 28.—Indiana
ranks among states having low death
rates, according to a report made
public today by the bureau of the census, setting forth the death rates
of the registration area of the United States in 1914, in comparison
with death rates in former years.

The report says:
"Among the states for which
death rates for 1901-1905 are given,
the greatest proportional decrease
between that period and 1914 is shown for Rhode Island, 17.4 per cent. Next in order are New York,
with a decrease of 14 per cent; New Jersey, 11.8 per cent; Massachusetts, 11.4 per cent; Vermont, 7.4
per cent; Connecticut, 3.8 per cent;
Indiana, 2.3 per cent; Maine, 1.9 per cent; New Hampshire, 1.3 per cent.
The death rate for 1,000 inhabitants for Indiana is a whole in 1914 was 12.9. The lowest was the state of New York, which had a rate of 10.1
in 1914. The highest was the state of Louisiana, which had a rate of 24.1
in 1914. The average for the United States was 12.2.

and the average from 1901 to 1905
inclusive was 12.2.

Indiana, as a whole, has a lower
death rate than Denver, which is
noted as one of the healthiest cities
in the world. The Denver rate is 13.2 a thousand. Indiana has the same death rate as Los Angeles, also
noted as a health resort.

The Indianapolis death rate
(total) in 1914 was 15.9 a thousand population. Among the Indianapolis
white it was 15.2 and among the
colored residents of the city it was 23.6. Compared with 1913 there was a slight increase in the death rate
among the Indianapolis white and a slight decrease in the colored death
rate. Other cities in the same part
of the country as Indianapolis had
the following death rates in 1914:
Chicago, 14.2; Louisville, 16.5; Cincinnati, 16; St. Louis, 15.

The death rate for the entire registration area in 1914 was 13.6, the lowest on record.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Hundreds of
women were among the first 2,000 of Chicago's proposed 20,000 citizen
police force, which went on duty to-
day. They took up their patrol in the politest, as well as the toughest districts in the city. Millionaires
row along Lake Shore drive and Little Italy a short distance away were
the districts chosen. That women were to be allowed on the force was not known until Louis Damon, Secretary of the Civic Co-operators,
sponsor for the movement, made the
announcement today.
"They'll be better than men," said
Damon. "They notice things quicker than men. The force will be comprised mostly of women." When completely over, black in the city will have a citizen police man or woman.

REPETITION IS NOW EXPECTED

Every Indication That Record of Democratic Congress in Past Will be Same This Time.

F. P. WOODS OF IOWA TALKS

Two Important Principles Must be Observed in Producing Important Legislation.

Washington, Dec. 28.—"There is every indication that the record of hastily considered, ill-digested and faulty legislation made by the Democratic party in former Congresses is to be repeated this session."

That this is a conclusion from which there is no escape is the judgment of Frank P. Woods of Iowa, Chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee. In a statement issued today Representative Woods outlined the reasons for his opinion.

"No legislative body can produce accurate legislation without observing two important principles," said Mr. Woods. "First, there must be intelligent unity of purpose as to the laws to be written. Second, the methods by which the proposed legislation is to be enacted must permit the correction of defects when they are discovered."

"Even at this early stage of the present session it is apparent that both these requirements are lacking. "With the party strength reduced to a bare majority in the House, there is a revolt against the most important legislation proposed, namely, provision for more adequate national defenses."

"The amounts asked for enlarging the army and navy involve annual increased expenditures estimated at a quarter of a billion dollars for several years. The responsibility of providing revenue to meet this expenditure falls largely upon the Ways and Means Committee."

"The Chairman of that Committee, Representative Claude Kitchin, has stated that he is opposed to the national defense program. His defection is more serious when it is remembered that his party has been unable to keep our national finances upon a sound basis when only ordinary demands were to be met. Mr. Kitchin himself has already pointed out that there is a serious deficit in the Treasury to be provided for."

"In the Senate the party strength was divided even before the session began. Bitter factional strife marked the organization of a President pro tempore and the proposed closure rule and it is obvious that the breach will not be healed."

"It is evident, therefore, that there will be no unity of purpose among the Democrats and that their method of procedure in framing laws will prevent the correction of errors even when discovered before enactment. The same methods employed in preceding Congresses, which were so productive of a mass of faulty legislation will be continued during this session."

ARE CHARGED WITH CAUSING STRIKES

Congressman Buchanan and Six Others Are Indicted in New York by Federal Grand Jury

UNDER THE ANTI-TRUST LAW

New York, Dec. 28.—A blanket indictment charging Congressman Frank Buchanan, David Lamar, the "wolf of Wall Street," former Congressman Robert Fowler of Illinois and four others with conspiracy was returned by the federal grand jury here as a result of its investigation into the alleged activities of labor's national peace council.

All are charged with conspiracy under the Sherman anti-trust law through endeavoring to incite labor troubles and interfere with commerce. The government charges that working through Von Rintelen and Lamar, the council sought to bring about strikes in factories manufacturing munitions for the allies.

DEATH FOLLOWS A WEEK'S ILLNESS

Miss Martha Halterman, Age 15, Expires of La Grippe, Complicated by Other Diseases

FUNERAL SET FOR THURSDAY

Miss Martha Halterman, 15 years old, died Tuesday evening at six o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halterman on the Joseph L. Cowing farm southwest of the city. Miss Halterman had been ill for about a week suffering from la grippe and this with a complication of diseases caused her death.

She is survived by her parents, three brothers, Blaine, Ernest and Newton Halterman and three sisters, Bertha, Harriett and Catherine and one half-sister, Mrs. Francis Hewitt. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at the Gowdy Methodist church and burial will take place in the cemetery at Moscow.

SEVEN THOUSAND ACRES SETTLED

Land in the Imperial Valley of California is Thrown Open to Settlers Today.

BRINGS TO CLOSE LONG SIEGE

(By United Press.)

Imperial, Cal., Dec. 29.—Seven thousand acres of land in the Imperial Valley were thrown open for entry by the government today, following one of the most remarkable settler sieges on record.

Two months ago hundreds of claimants came upon the land, determined to camp on desirable locations until filing time. For weeks the tense situation has existed. Bearded men, rifles ready, walked sentry-go on their chosen territory, ready to make it not for trespassers. At night scores of bonfires dotted the landscape and in the glow from the flames the settlers could be seen preserving their vigilance. Several men built cabins. On account of conflicting claims, the government may have many legal skeins to unravel.

INCOME TAX IN FOR HARD WINTER

President, Supreme Court, McAdoo And Committees Have Designs on This Act

ALL SEEK TO CHANGE IT

Secretary of Treasury Wants Taxes on Individuals And Corporations Increased

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 29.—The Income Tax law is in for a long, hard winter. The President, the Supreme Court, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and any number of committees and factions in Congress have designs on the act. It may appear strong and well in the spring, it may be crippled and it may be dead. The fate of the law and of the many amendments which are being planned, rests largely upon the Supreme court's decision in the five cases pending.

If the law comes through that ordeal whole, it must still pass into the hands of congress. President Wilson wants the exemptions of the tax lowered, and the surtax started at a lower figure and increased more rapidly than at present. Secretary McAdoo wants the rates of taxation on both individual and corporate incomes increased, the exemptions reduced from $3,000 to $2,000 for single persons and from $4,000 to $3,000 for married; and the surtax started at $10,000 or $15,000 instead of $20,000. Many administration men in congress will seek to amend the law conformity with these plans.

Senator Owen wants the tax increased to fifty percent on incomes of $50,000 a year and up. Republicans are expected to introduce bills removing the "collection at the source" feature and possibly lightening the surtax. The income tax law became effective Oct. 3, 1913, after a constitutional amendment for it had been ratified by three fourths of the state. Most tax authorities favored it because it was to be the largest trial on this continent of a system designed to make tax dodging difficult.

The administration liked it because it brought a revenue of $80,000,000 a year. Now the administration wants to raise more revenue by this means and opponents of income taxation want to amend it to raise less. The present law provides an exemption up to $3,000 of income for single persons and $4,000 for married persons. One percent is collected on incomes up to $20,000, on amounts between that and $50,000 an additional one percent, and further increases up to six percent on incomes over $50,000.

It is this increase above one percent, the surtax which with "collection at the source" is being fought. To prevent the hiding of incomes the law ordered that all companies paying dividends on stocks and bonds deduct the amount of the tax and pay it to the government before they paid the dividends to the stock and bondholders. This is the "collection at the source" feature. There was an immediate wail when the tax first took effect, and several taxpayers took their cases into court.

These have sifted down to the five now before the Supreme court. In these five almost every provision of the law is attacked, and upon the decision of the court rests the constitutionality of all of these provisions. A decision is expected at any time, but it is possible the court will wait until Justice Lamar, now ill, returns to the bench, before making a decision. Congress is expected to go ahead with its amendments, if the court decision is not returned soon.

Why Do You Suffer Painful Twinge?

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with that headachy, all run-down feeling that is often the result of Kidney trouble.

It is no longer necessary for you to contend with disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders or be tormented with rheumatism, stiff or swollen joints or the heart-wrenching miseries that follow as a result of neglected or poorly working kidneys. Solvax quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Solvax is a wonderful discovery that has always been so uniformly successful that every package is sold under positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve the worst case of kidney disorder.

"Your money back if you want it," is the way Johnson's Drug Store, the popular druggist, are selling this great kidney remedy. A guarantee like that speaks eloquently for the merit of Solvax.

Do not suffer another minute. Solvax will relieve you. If it doesn't tell Johnson's Drug Store that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

Comforting Words

Many a Rushville Household Will Find Them so.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Rushville readings.

John Heany, 616 West Third street, Rushville, says: "A short time ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The secretions passed too frequently both day and night, obliging me to get up several times. The were also highly colored and filled with sediment. My back was weak and lame too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Johnson's Drug Store, and they relieved me a great deal."

Society and Club News

Edited by MISS FRANCES FRAZEE

The Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church met this afternoon in the church parlors.

There will be no regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Catholic church tomorrow.

Miss Lucile Gray entertained at six o'clock dinner last evening Miss Mary Carr, Hal Plummer, of Indianapolis and Tom Fleming, of Anderson.

Miss Ellen Worsham will entertain the Embroidery Club tomorrow afternoon, at her home at 632 North Morgan street.

Mrs. Frank Hayes of Connersville and Miss Eleanor Lampton of Milroy were the guests at dinner today of Mrs. Morris Maxey, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Jones entertained at a delightful dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Bliss, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. John Dickerson, of Lexington, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wamsley of New Salem were the host and hostess for a most enjoyable oyster supper last evening. It was in the form of a pitch-in and a number of New Salem families were participants in the jolly party.

The holiday meeting of the Century class of the Main street Christian Sunday school will not be held in the basement of the church tonight as planned because of a misunderstanding as to dates. The postponement is for an indefinite time, it was announced.

Wallace Payne leaves this evening for a houseparty to be given in Iowa City, Iowa, by one of his college friends, Edward Records. The houseparty, which will be attended by five couples, will continue until after New Year's promises to be a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. J. D. Case, of this city was one of the guests today at the beautiful luncheon given at the Y. W. C. A. in Indianapolis. The luncheon was attended by C. W. B. M. members in this district. Mrs. Case, who held several offices in the organization, is Vice-president now.

Miss Laura Holden, of this city, was among the guests today at a prettily appointed luncheon given in Indianapolis at the home of Miss Ruth Hadde. It was the annual holiday luncheon given by the sorority of which Miss Holden is a member. Decorations suggestive of the yuletide were used throughout the house and made the dining table attractive.

A merry crowd of young people gathered at the home of Miss Katharine Wyatt last evening when they were charmingly entertained at an informal party. Dancing, music and selections from the Victrola made the evening a gay and enjoyable one for the guests. A dainty one course luncheon was served by the hostess. Seven couples were present, the only out-of-town guest being Florence Conner, who is visiting Mrs. Jennie Kincaid.

HILLGOSS DINNER.

A dinner, worthy of the reputation of the Hillgoss home, was served Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Dora Hillgoss were the cordial host and hostess to a number of their friends and relatives. A delectable turkey dinner was served to the guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Berry Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Elsa Hillgoss, and daughter, Lavon, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Johnson, and family, Mrs. Jonas Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Osborne and son, John, and Mrs. Sparks.

PITCH-IN SUPPER.

Many and delightful are the advantages of "Pitch-in" dinners. Aside from the advantages for the hostess, the mere word guarantees a good time because of the informality. A good time is promised at the pitch-in given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson at their home this evening. Those who will attend are the following: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Barringer, and Miss Hazel Matlock. The Christmas colors, red and green, have been used to make the home attractive for the occasion.

ANDERSON DINNER.

Delightful indeed was the family dinner given today by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Anderson at their hospitable home, south of the city. The dinner was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, of Richland who were recently married. It added greatly to the pleasure of the sumptuous dinner to have Mrs. Anderson, who has been ill for some time, able to welcome her guests. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Senour, from Riley, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, from Diehlend, Mrs. S. A. Bartlett, from Milroy, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson.

PSI IOTA XI.

Christmas decorations, artistically and tastefully used, made the dining room at the Scanlan House attractive last evening when the members of Psi Iota Xi held their annual banquet in honor of the college students who are home for the holidays. The eighteen guests were seated at tables for four, the center of each table being adorned with a tiny Christmas tree, trimmed with strands of tinsel and miniature red candles. Over each table an electric light, dimmed by a red paper shade, hung low. The places were marked by dainty Christmas cards. A sumptuous three course dinner was served, after which the sorority song was sung by the members.

Preceding the banquet, an informal Christmas party was held at the home of Miss Marguerite Wolcott. Music furnished by the members was enjoyed during the afternoon, and each guest received a Christmas present from the grab bag. After the dinner, the girls closed the round of pleasure with a theatre party. The out-of-town guests were Miss Madeline Lord, of Seford, Del., who is visiting Miss Jean McClanahan, and Mrs. George Dehority of Elwood.

HOUSEPARTY.

Reports received here from the Misses Dorothy Sparks, Dorothy Mulno, and Lois Reeves indicate that every element is combining to make the houseparty which they are attending at Huntington, W. Va., faultless in giving the guests a good time. Upon their arrival Sunday evening, an elaborate six o'clock dinner was given in their honor, after which thirty young people called at the Bell home to meet the houseparty guests. Monday afternoon, one hundred guests attended the tea given in their honor. And so the week, every day of which promises one or more functions for the fortunate guests, has started. The hostess, Miss Lillian Bell of Huntington, W. Va., is a niece of the Misses Leonora and Alice Norris, and has frequently visited in this city. The following clipping from the Huntington Advertiser is but a sample of the merry round of pleasure being given in honor of the Rushville girls.

A brilliant opening to the many handsome social affairs of the Yuletide was the tea given this afternoon by Miss Lillian Bell, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bell, when she presented to a large coterie of friends, her attractive house guests, Misses Dorothy Mulno, Lois Reeves and Dorothy Sparks of Rushville, Ind. The holiday spirit prevailed everywhere. Holly with its crimson berries, carried out beautifully the color scheme, red and green. Upon entering the hospitable portals of the home you were met at the door by little Miss Margaret Bishop, and in the hall cordial greetings were extended by Miss Aleen Stevens, and Mrs. Helen Tufts Landon. Mrs. Bell, Miss Lillian Bell, Misses Mulno, Sparks and Reeves all beautifully attired in evening gowns, received in the living room the visitors, and all won instant favor by their gracious charm of manner.

Miss Helen Hutchinson also lent her aid in this apartment. "Around a table of unusual beauty, characterized by an artistic floral embellishment of red roses in gilded baskets, capped candles all in red hues, the guests enjoyed a delectable menu consisting of salad and ices. Miss Mabel Adams, in her graciousness manner, poured tea, while Miss Fay Douthitt presided at the coffee urn. Others assisting in the dining room were Mrs. R. C. Bell, Miss Lillian Bell, Misses Anna Wood, Marjorie Candiff and Kathryn Hutchinson. About one hundred guests were in attendance enjoying to the fullest this very delightful hospitality.

She had not known where to call her mother to notify her that her lost daughter was safe.

The greatest enemy of your teeth

When scientists recently discovered the cause of that dread disease, pyorrhea, they discovered the greatest enemy of your teeth. Why yours? Because the germ that causes this disease inhabits every human mouth!

Your dentist will tell you that half of all the permanent teeth lost are lost from this disease. This is because people have not realized before that everyone should take precautions against this enemy. You can start now to ward off its constant attack and escape the terrible results of this disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before

the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Co., 502 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MANY CRISES WERE PASSED

United States Faced Many Difficult Problems With Other Countries

In Past Year

RECORD FOR NOTE WRITING

Relations Were Near Breaking Point on Several Occasions—Bright Future in Store

By BOND P. GEDDES
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 29.—An epochal year in United States' relations with the world family of nations marked 1915. Serious crises marked the twelvemonth; and more threaten in 1916. This nation passed safely through the vortex of the world war though often very near severing relations with European powers. Its peace has been threatened from within and without.

The country faces in the new year more delicate problems, including new and old disputes with Europe's belligerents.

The killing of over 100 Americans on the high seas, destruction, seizure and attacks upon American vessels, ruthless confiscation of American property and interference with American commerce; dismissal of foreign diplomats, resignation of its own Secretary of State, and European criticism of its neutrality were the outstanding events of 1915 in American world diplomacy.

Peaceful settlement of the dispute with Austria over her attack upon the Italian liner Ancona, with England over her trade interferences, with Germany over the Lusitania incident and with the Teutonic powers over unneutral conspiracies in this country were the quartet of dominant and delicate problems facing us in 1916.

Red Letter days on the 1915 calendar were:

March, 15—England's blockade of Germany; May 7—Sinking of the Lusitania; June 9—Secretary Bryan's resignation; Aug. 19—Sinking of the Arabic; Sept. 10—Recall of Austrian Ambassador Dumba; Oct. 4—Half billion loan to the allies; Nov. 9—Sinking of the Ancona; Dec. 6—Recall of German Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen.

These and numberless entanglements of the war caused Uncle Sam to break all records in diplomatic note writing. Hundreds of notes were sent. The chief year's diplomatic victory was the enforced modification by Germany of her submarine warfare.

Today the United States stands with increased power and prestige, but still weighted with the task of perfecting peaceful settlements with England, France, Germany and Austria in most delicate and difficult complications. The passing year was rife with diplomatic dynamite. A chronicle of the more important international events follows:

Jan. 5—U. S. agrees with England to certify non-contraband cargoes. 8—England denied unduly seizing American ships. 11—England protested transfer of cotton steamer Dacia from German to U. S. registry. 28—American schooner William P. Frye sunk by steamer raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

February, 5—Because of German government confiscating all foodstuffs, England seized American grain steamer Wilhelmnia. 11—U. S. warned England and Germany not to abuse use of American flag or attack American ships. 16—German submarine blockade of England protested. 18—British note denies American commerce injured. 19—German note rejected American protest against sinking neutral ships in war zone about England. 20—Two notes from England affirmed right to seize steamer Wilhelmnia and promised limited use of American flag. 21—American cotton steamer Evelyn sunk by mine, one American killed. 23—American cotton steamer Garb sunk by mine, two Americans killed. 27—Government began probing supply of German warships from New York by Hamburg American line.

March 10—German note to U. S. demanding disavowal of Ancona attack. 23—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 24—U. S. sends note to Austria demanding disavowal of Ancona attack. 25—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 26—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 27—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 28—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 29—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen. 30—U. S. demands recall of Capt. Boy-Ed and Von Papen.

and Friedrich arrived at Newport News and later interned. 28—Leon Thrasher, American, killed when German submarine torpedoed British steamer Falaba.

April 1—French $50,000,000 loan negotiated. 5—U. S. asks Germany for reparation for schooner William P. Frye. 6—France released August Piepenbrink, German seized on American steamer. Note to England declares German blockade illegal. 7—Prinz Eitel Friedrich interned. Germany protested against steamer Odewald's detention at San Juan, Porto Rico. 11—German raider Kronprinz Wilhelm reached Newport News. 12—Germany protests against American munitions sales to allies. 21—State Department advises Germany munitions sales are made legal right. 26—Kronprinz Wilhelm interned.

May 1—Lusitania sailed from New York despite German embassy warnings. 3—American steamer Gulfight torpedoed by German submarine, off Scilly Isles, three Americans killed. 7—Lusitania torpedoed by German submarine, 114 Americans killed. 13—U. S. note to Germany demands disavowal Lusitania attack, reparation and cessation of submarine warfare of ships carrying non-combatants. 25—American steamer Nebaskan sunk by mine or torpedoed. 30—Germany delivers reply note to Ambassador Gerard regarding Lusitania, alleging vessel armed.

June 5—German notes regret attacks on Cushing and Gulfight. 9—Secretary of State Bryan resigns. 10—U. S. sends second Lusitania note to Germany holding her to strict accountability. 25—England refuses to abandon German blockade. 29—Canadian liner Armenian torpedoed. 21—American hostlers killed.

July, 7—Navy Department takes control of German wireless plant at Sayville, L. I. 16—Austria in note protests against munitions sales to allies. 18—Canadian Orduna unsuccessfully chased by submarine. 23—U. S. sends third Lusitania note to Germany, advising that a repetition will be considered "deliberately unfriendly." 27—American steamer Leelanau submarined, crew saved.

August, 4—Three notes from England uphold orders-in-council, German blockade and American commerce interferences. Note from Germany defends schooner William P. Frye but agrees to payment of damages. 16—U. S. advises Austria that munitions sales are legal. Correspondence revealing operations of German agents published. 19—Arabic torpedoed, two Americans killed.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as radical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte. J. B. SCHRICHTE SONS MONUMENTS 117-121 S. MAIN ST.

HOW TO SELL THINGS THAT ARE "FOR SALE"

Write your "For Sale" ad SIMPLY, stating every detail about the article that you would want an ad to give if you were anxious to buy something of the kind yourself. Give a little thought to the selling points about the article, and put THEM into your ad. Then run the ad MORE THAN ONCE, if that is necessary. It may come very handy.

Simple Remedy For Catarrh

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigation, R. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomei this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomei is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathe the air of Hyomei through the little inhaler druggists furnish with it for a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete and lasting relief.

In Rushville there are scores of well known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you Johnson's Drug Store will return the money you paid for Hyomei. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to their faith in this remedy.

READY TO STAND BY HIS RECORD

James E. Watson Makes "This Assertion in Speech at Greensburg, Closing Tour of County.

ASKS SUPPORT OF PEOPLE

Declares That This Government Must Return to Protective Tariff Principles.

Declaring that he would stand by his record in his race for the Republican nomination for United States Senator from Indiana, James E. Watson, of Rushville, Monday night closed a stirring speech, in which he flayed the present national administration for what he termed their utter inability to cope with the great questions which concern the welfare of the government, says the Greensburg Review.

Mr. Watson had a busy day Monday. Visiting every town in the county, he met many old friends and acquaintances and at each and every stop he talked briefly on the issues of the day. Accompanied by many Greensburg boosters, the trip was started and after several delays, occasioned by breakdowns to the machine, the tour ended in this city.

The meeting was held in the G. A. R. hall, and despite the bad weather, large crowd was present. Mr. Watson was introduced by John V. Rhodes.

James E. Watson brought a message worth hearing, and his explanation of the great question which promises to be the leading issue in next year's campaign—the tariff—caught the crowd right. Mr. Watson stated that he had studied the tariff question for a quarter of a century and said that he felt like he ought to know something about it.

Mr. Watson took the national administration to task for the Mexican policy and referred to the A. B. C. convention, held at Niagara Falls, as a subterfuge for Wilson, who instead of keeping us from getting into war in Mexico in reality had gotten us into war in that revolution-torn country, and wanted to cover up his mistake by the convention. It is a singular thing, the speaker said, that nothing was ever heard of the convention and the good that was accomplished. Mr. Watson declared that Carranza, present head of the Mexican government, was infinitely worse than Huerta, who was deposed.

The doctrine of the protective tariff, and the absolute necessity for the enactment of a tariff law that protects, is essential, if conditions suitable to the laboring man obtain in this country, the speaker declared. He did not burden the audience with a lengthy discussion of the various phases of good that come from a protective tariff, but gave many illustrations to prove his points.

Mr. Watson declared that the Democratic battle-cries of the next campaign would be "Stand by the President, he's kept us out of war." In answer to this he said that Wilson couldn't have got us into war in Europe to save his life. "We haven't enough soldiers to take our fleet through the Atlantic if we would have

war." The speaker said that if war was declared between Germany and the United States, the ambassadors would be called home by each of the governments and we would stand and make faces at the Kaiser. "That's as far as we would get with war," shouted the speaker. "We haven't the necessary navy to put up a fight." "Stand by the President, he's kept us out of war!"

In speaking of preparedness, Mr. Watson declared that he stood where he always had stood, for a merchant marine, a powerful system of merchant vessels, which could be used in times of war. Mr. Watson pointed out to the audience his record in congress and the untiring fight he made for a merchant marine. He said that the Democrats were always opposed to subsidiary legislation.

Mr. Watson ridiculed the administration for the various tax measures that had been imposed and said that the government now was facing the ultimatum—the sale of bonds to keep the wheel of the government moving.

In speaking of his candidacy for the nomination for United States Senator, Mr. Watson spoke a kind word for his opponents, and said that if experience was worth anything, he believed he ought to have the preference.

He told of the question raised when he first entered the race in which it was said that he couldn't get the Progressive vote. In this connection he said that at the time of the Chicago convention, when the Republican party had a family fuss, Harry New was national committeeman, that he assisted in making temporary roll for convention. The question of southern representation was decided by the national committee long before Mr. Watson arrived at the convention. This was what the split in the party resulted from and Mr. Watson said that Mr. New was as deep in the mud as he was in the mire, if that argument was to be presented.

But Mr. Watson went further. He said that he had assurances of support from practically all the Progressive leaders. In stating this he said that he had always been given the credit for fighting in the open, that they always knew where to find him, and that he never hit below the belt.

"This story of the tariff will have to be told from the stump next campaign and if I may be vain enough to say it, I believe I know more about the tariff than any other living man. I am making a campaign of education now and it will have to be made later on. I want the nomination for senator and it is a laudable ambition," he declared.

Mr. Watson's speech was very well received. He was interrupted by applause at frequent intervals. The address was such as Mr. Watson has the ability to make, forceful and convincing. The Republican party with his time tested, honorable and true principles lifted this nation to the very apex of power in 1912 and in 1916 will again lift it to its rightful position, to stand, the admiration of the world, he said.

Mr. Watson was well pleased with his visit in this county, and expressed himself as much satisfied with the assurance of support. Tuesday he went to Jackson county where he appeared on a K. of P. program at Crothersville. It is his intention to visit each county in the state before the primary March 7.

SLEET CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE

lines. Workmen for the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company had a mighty task on their hands with complaints coming in of poles down and wires entangled.

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company was also having some trouble because of the heavy coating of ice on all of the wires.

George Davis, manager of the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company, said that there were just four circuits out of the Rushville exchange this morning, but during the day several were cleared up so that they could be used. All of the exchanges in the county were cut off from Rushville today, with the exception of Milroy.

Discussing the mishap to the lines south of Rushville Mr. Davis said it was clearly the weight of the sleet and ice that caused the poles to fall and not any weakness of the poles. They snapped off eight or ten feet above the ground, he said, and not right on the level with the ground.

Mr. Davis said that he never saw a worse mess in his experience with storm the character of the one here today. He declared that some of the wires were covered with ice until they were the size of an average man's wrist. The effect of the wind was seen in some instances, he said, causing the icy wires to be rectangular in shape.

Rushville was cut off from all communication with Indianapolis today because there was not a telephone line that could be used.
